

TREASURY DEPARTMENT.

The attention of the occupants of the U. S. C. H. & P. O. BUILDING AT PHILADELPHIA, PA., is respectfully called to Section 30, Paragraph 4, of

“INSTRUCTIONS TO CUSTODIANS OF PUBLIC BUILDINGS,” which provides:

“No article of furniture or fixtures should be transferred from one office or room to another until authority has been obtained therefor from the Treasury Department.”

Should it be considered proper or desirable that any fixture or article of furniture should be removed from one room to another, NOTICE OF THE FACT SHOULD BE COMMUNICATED IN WRITING TO THE CUSTODIAN, when the necessary authority will be obtained from the Treasury Department.

WILLIAM F. HARRITY,

PHILADELPHIA, PA., JUNE 7, 1888.

Custodian.

Treasury Dept.
Phila.
June 7, 1888.

Wm. L. Harris
Caretaker.

Calls attention to Instructions relative to transferring furniture or fixtures.

[Abstract:] Calls attention to Instructions relative to transferring furniture or fixtures.

Treasury Department.

The attention of the occupants of the U.S.C.H. & P.O. Building at Philadelphia, Pa., is respectfully called to Section 30, Paragraph 4, of "Instructions to Custodians of Public Buildings", which provides:

"No article of furniture or fixtures should be transferred from one office or room to another until authority has been obtained therefor from the Treasury Department."

Should it be considered proper or desirable that any fixture or article of furniture should be removed from one room to another, Notice of the fact should be communicated in writing to the Custodian, when the necessary authority will be obtained from the Treasury Department.

William F. Harrity,
Custodian.

Philadelphia, Pa.,
June 7, 1888